

Integration in the snow management process

- Current snow management approaches:
 - Strategy : Generally based on necessary amounts to cope for the « worst » year
 - Tactic : Daily decision to produce snow (or not), based on meteorological conditions and on-going snow conditions (empirical)
- Significant probability to « over-produce » (end of winter left-overs)
- Is it possible to perform better (economically, ecologically, societally etc.) using available information ?